

Young Scientist Committee – Update 2010

- a. Background/Purpose of the Committee (see YS corner on website)
- encourage Young Scientists to join the IATDMCT and to participate actively in the biennial meetings
 - enhance contact opportunities for Young Scientists, particularly for first time attendees of the biennial congresses. Encourage contact between TDM and CT specialists.
 - encourage participation of Young Scientists in the activities of the Association.
- b. Committee Membership List (see YS corner on website)
- Chairman: Frank Theodor Peters, Jena, Germany
 - Secretary: Denise Anne McKeown, London, UK
 - Web editor: Sarah Wille, Brussels, Belgium
 - Mailing list coordinator: Asma Djabri, Bath, UK
 - Committee members:
Reinier Van Hest, Den Haag, The Netherlands
Christoph Sauer, Jena, Germany
Jennifer Button, London, UK
Susannah Davies, London, UK
Franck Saint-Marcoux, Limoges, France
- c. Minutes of your Committee Meeting at the Montreal IATDMCT Congress
- No formal committee meeting was held in Montreal. For Young Scientist Activities during the Montreal meeting please refer to the attached report already presented during the AGM in Montreal.
- d. a list of Committee initiatives for 2010
- As in previous years, the YS committee will regularly contribute articles to the Compass and regularly update the YS corner of the website with information and e.g. mini-reviews by Young Scientists.

Jena, December 2009

Frank T. Peters
Chairman

London, December 2009

Denise A. McKeown
Secretary